PRESIDENT'S REPORT February 2011

Welcome to 2011 – We are fortunate to be spared from the natural disasters suffered by our Eastern States neighbours. When the owner of a classic car was interviewed about his losses, I could not help wondering how many historic vehicles have been lost forever, or at best requiring major rebuilds.

Our January meeting was again well attended and Ian Roberts movie choice of “The Big Steal” was excellent, with all present having more than one night’s fair share of laughs. Our thanks to all members who helped with the catering, continuing the tradition of this being a top meeting.

The committee organizing our bi-annual rally has met and arrangements are well on the way for a September visit to Burra and surrounds in September. Please read the enclosed article for details and accommodation arrangements.

Likewise, our team of volunteers have finalized NARC’s entry at Power Of The Past (in the Club Entry category) on the weekend of March 5th and 6th at Mt. Barker oval. Several members are also entering individually. If you haven’t previously been to this annual event it is well worth the visit, with cars, motor cycles, engines, machinery, tractors and various collections on display and a swap meet on the Sunday morning. We take this opportunity to advertise NARC as a club and to hand out flyers for the Clare swap meet. All members are invited to call in at the NARC site and lend a hand with our Public Relations exercise. We will have our shade tent erected to protect you from the elements and to enjoy the fellowship.

Editor Dean has been busy updating the club’s register of historic machines and asks that you carefully check the draft edition for accuracy of your entries. Please note that this register is not published on the NARC web site – it is confidential to members only. The increase in entry numbers on our club register is amazing – How about we get to see more of them on club outings?

We hope to see a good rollup of members at the Kadina Farm Shed Museum on Sunday 10th February, a constantly developing display to which several NARC members contribute their time and expertise. Please note the BYO lunch and chair requirement on the day.

Our Condolences go to the family and friends of Robin Hall who, after a long illness, died recently

Editors Report

As John noted above I have created an updated version of the Register which will be included with the next Con-Rod for those who want a printed copy. A draft version has been emailed to all members for whom I have an email address. If you did not receive a draft perhaps you know a member who has email and you could check you entry that way? I have received a good number of alterations and would like to think the Register will be a complete and correct document when sent out.

Many Thanks
Dean

New Members

We would like to welcome to our club 2 new members from Kapunda.

David Carey and his partner Jewels (Julie) who have a 59 and a 64 Ford Anglia.

Christmas Lunch 2010

By Dale Palamountain

This year, Greenock Hotel was the venue, thanks to some good research by Brian and Irene Woodcock. Thirty four people enjoyed the a la carte meal and the obligatory bon-bons. The latter were complete with loud crackers, gifts, a hat and jokes that were marginally better than average. (I do think there is an opportunity for someone to make and sell a better bon-bon).

The gang were obviously pleased to be there and quickly had a dozen competing conversations going. Calm settled on the very long table when meals arrived, combining with drinks to eventually make the participants feel full and tired. We appropriately congratulated Tony and Raelene Leis on their forty sixth wedding anniversary, in song that would not have been attempted before drinks loosened vocal cords. It was a well attended gathering and the organizers get a well deserved thank you and did not deserve being the last to get their meal.

Brian Haines claimed he had the best ever Schnitzel. The organizers, Brian and Irene, will get the job of planning the next Christmas lunch if they are not careful. A nice spot, close to home. I saw eight club cars out.

Thank you all, Dale P.

N.A.R.C. 2011 Swap Meet: The 33rd Year at Clare

The 2011 NARC Swap meet clashes with the Clipsal 500 in Adelaide. Some members are attending the Clipsal, so I have included some of our new members on the roster. If any of them have any queries, could you please contact Graham Goode, as soon as possible.

- The Lions Club will again provide full catering on the grounds, with the NARC ladies providing tea, coffee, sandwiches and cakes.
- A craft display be will be in the red brick pavilion and a good range of plants will be under the verandah on the northern side of the main pavilion.
- If you are unable to assist the club by working on the roster please notify:
Graham Goode (08) 8842 3731 or (08) 8842 2417
Ferg Mahon (08) 8842 2107
- Ladies of the Club are asked to support the Swap Meet stall, by providing slab cakes or small cakes, or by helping on the day. Sandwiches will be made on the day. Inquiries to Rosemary Goode 8842 2417
- The setting up of the grounds and buildings will be held on Saturday 19th March, commencing at 9.00 am. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

NARC members are invited to a bar-be-que on the Saturday night from 6.30pm, at the home Graham and Rosemary Goode, 24 Beare St Clare . For catering purposes, please contact Graham Goode on (work 8842 3731 or ah 8842 2417) by Wednesday 16th March, if you intend coming.

Members Please Note: At this year's Swap there will be a Club site for members wishing to sell their treasures. It will be located on the lower level (where the side shows are on show day) along side Ian Denton's site. Craig Thomas (8662 6203) or Graham Goode (8842 3731) have offered to coordinate the site but will need members to assist in manning it. All items will need to be clearly priced and they will need to know numbers using the site and the type of treasures being sold, so that we can allow enough room.

The Club auction will again be held at the Club site at 10.00 am, with the terms of the auction being strictly cash and strictly no reserves and that items listed for auction will need to be on display on the table prior to the auction.

For more information please contact:

Craig Thomas Graham Goode Brett Colliver Peter Eaton

ON THE DAY: Members Are asked to report to the Secretary's Office prior to going to your roster position as you are required to collect a NARC jacket and to sign in, as a part of the Clubs duty of care. Please wear the NARC (Yellow jacket) provided and return it to the Secretary's Office when finished. It is extremely important that you abide by both directives.

Members are reminded that their assistance at the end of the day, to dismantle and clean the site is greatly appreciated. Please bring leather gloves.

On the road to recovery

In early November Glen and Eileen Dawes were involved in a vehicle accident. Both were badly shaken but with no serious injuries, however Glen was left disoriented and confused.

Glen's Port Broughton Doctor referred him for a CAT Scan followed by further tests and MRI. Glen was diagnosed as having a brain tumour. He was operated on at the Royal Adelaide Hospital on December 1st where a 3cm (size of an egg yolk) tumour was removed from the mid frontal area of his brain.

Following the operation Glen spent a month in the RAH having ray treatment and chemotherapy. He was then transferred to Hampstead Rehabilitation Centre but unfortunately developed a urine infection and had to return to the RAH. Glen went back to Hampstead for a further three weeks. He was transferred back to Port Broughton on Jan 27th.

Glen and Eileen are now residing at the Barunga Village where Glen hopes with the help of physiotherapy to make a full recovery.

SCOTT MOTORCYCLE CLUB SPRING GATHERING – BENALLA

Each year the Scott Motorcycle Club's Australian Section holds their spring gathering at Benalla in northern Victoria, it being most central to the majority of owners in New South Wales, Victoria and South Australia (although a few have migrated to the west in recent months).

And so it was that we found ourselves amongst a regular group of faces again on the last weekend of October at fifteen Mile Creek Camp – a school camp south of the town, where the bitumen roads are good, the traffic quiet and the locals who cater for our meals, friendly.

As we prepared to set out on Saturday morning for the day's ride we were pleasantly surprised to see a group of thoroughbred sports cars pass the front gate – Vauxhall's, Bentleys, Alvis, Sunbeams etc – I'd guess the Vintage Drivers Club – the sound was great, and I hope they weren't too envious of our machinery. First stop was Glenrowan for lunch, where I had my first encounter with the law. Fortunately it was a bit less serious than Ned's – this guy just wanted to know where we were going, because it was raining heavily at the top of King Valley, and he just wanted to warn us there were bikes coming down all over the place up there and to be careful. We were heading in the opposite direction to Wangaratta, but still hit rain, although everyone was prepared and so arrived at our next stop dry on the inside.

This stop was at Ken Lucas's shed – we'd been there before, but a shed full of 30 or more racing motorcycles and all the gear that goes with that, is still an eye-opener.

Ken's Nortons

The best way to describe Ken is to think of an 84 year-old teenager, who doesn't look like growing up. Well known in Classic and Vintage motorcycle racing circles, whether riding one of his methanol burning Vincents bored out to 1500cc, a Manx Norton, Norton outfit, AJS 7R, or speedway Douglas, it doesn't really matter – he still mixes it with the younger blokes and is often first across the line. Having had both hips replaced as a result of years sitting on a bulldozer, Ken is still as lively as most people half his age and as sharp as a tack. When you do what he does, which includes building brand new replica AJS 7R and Matchless G9 racing engines, or preparing a veteran Vee twin to ride from Perth to Sydney later this year, you have to be.

Ken and his wife also put on afternoon tea for us, after which we set off again for home (more rain).

A follow-up vehicle that stopped for petrol and came back to camp only 15 mins or so after the motorcyclists brought with them digital photos of a tree that had fallen across and completely blocked the road between when we went through and their coming along. At a foot diameter, it was a reminder to all us riders that you can not take anything for granted on a motorbike and that luck had been on our side.

Ken Lucas at speed

Sunday's ride was up to Oxley to take a look around a guy's shed that he'd inherited from his father and which he's left almost untouched. A sort of anything and everything place. From there some of the women took off for Milawa, a place well renowned for gourmet foods (which includes some bloody nice cheeses).

Most of the blokes went on to Robin Gibb's - home of what I'd say is probably one of the largest collections of steam engines in Australia, including Sentinel and Yorkshire trucks and god knows how many stationary and traction engines.

From there we rode back to Greta for lunch, where I had my second encounter with the law in an unmarked car. Being under the speed limit as I hit the 60 sign, I was a bit surprised to be pulled over and I think the copper was just as surprised when he saw what I was riding. After seeing the rigmarole you go through with hand gear change, rear stand etc. to park a vintage motorcycle and finding out I was only going as far as the pub 200 metres down the road to stop for lunch, he actually apologised! It was here things could have gotten difficult. First he asked why my October dated rego sticker was out of date, easily resolved when I suggested he have a closer look – I'd just renewed it and it had a 1913 expiry. He was OK with that but then wanted to see my license. Back in the car with Marie, wasn't it! On being told she'd be coming along in 5 mins or so, he was happy to wait, during which time he learnt a lot about Scott motorcycles and nothing about the SA logbook system. I had my book with me, but thought the less confusion I could create, the better. Anyway, Marie came along and nearly sailed straight past, wondering why I'd stopped where I did. Having blown zero and eventually producing my license, we both went on our merry ways, me to explain to the rest of the group what I'd been doing parked up the road away.

After lunch, it was just the run back to camp. This time it really belted down, so the ride was not as pleasant as it usually is – that bit of road is normally motorcycle heaven.
